Living Pictures.

Mahet by the Press Publishing Company as to as PARK ROW, New York.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1894 BUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

ed at the Post-Office at New York as second class matter.

BRANCH OFFICES LD UPTOWN OFFICE-Junction of Broa and Sixth are, at 204 st.

WARRINGTON-722 14th st.

--THE WORLD'S CIRCULATION FOR OCTOBER AVERAGE PER WEEK DAY. 488,262. AVERAGE PER SUNDAY 332,949. GAIN OVER LAST YEAR PER 45,150. GAIR OVER LAST YEAR PER 76,290

dd varicose veins to the list of comnts at Woodley.

"Bread Trust weakening." Good. But the pressure is not to cease

Records-elect Goff has been sworn in. May be prove the right Judge to swear

Even Tom Platt has volunteered reason why he should not be a Lexow revival of hope for another serie erica's Cup races, next year, is The "L" cars at night continue to no light on the transit question nor on their passengers.

Give us football sans slugging next laturday, if you please, young gentle-men of Yale and Princeton. money business men sign petitions fa vi ing gamomig in their city. They must be remarkable business men. Germany's Grand Old Man is widowed to-day. The sympathy of the world is with Bismarck over the death of his Princess wife.

Gov. William McKinley is here. The hotel he is stopping at might appropri-ately add a few "Evening World" tariff out" for the present.

Have New York murderers a colony anywhere? Foglia and the persons who killed the Harlem watchman could tell ething about this, probably.

"Old masters" do not rate high in this city now. The biggest price paid for one at the Gamege sale was $225, and that for a Velasquez nobleman.

which cannot in three days rescue led kitten from the cornice of th-story window in a great city.

ooklyn wants a Lexow Committe We are not through with ours yet, but as soon as we are we would advise Brooklyn to secure it, for it does good

Two local bank robbers have been le law set up good fellowship as an satory quality in cases of wholecretary Lamont has overruled quartermaster on a question about a road roller. He has not yet decided lowever, about the New York and New Real tenement-house reform will do to be promised through the efforts Mrs. J. Edward Addicks wants a di-

Delaware. The good citizens of Dela- somebody's money on the jump. nd as well the divorce of the Senatorship from millionaireism

Commissioner Androws denies that he who charges him with having done so.

Defeated Congressmen are writing to the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House for their mileage. As their constituents didn't seem to think their services at shington of much value, what's the ter with their walking?

Or. Parkhurst does not care to express tion that nearly is per cent. of all the is has its favored subjects.

"And so they were married." To a one-helf of their heighth to be above ground.

ing for the young ruler to show his hand before deciding if they shall coninue unbroken their course of ter-

EXAMINE THE BOOKS.

The three recent disclosures of longontinued peculation by little clerks in and the keeping of municipal accounts direction. are greater than those used in banks and There has been much legislation in re- the "dramatic episodes," as he pro other private institutions, or that lation to the regulation of tonements, terms them. We have the rind of the defalcations are much rarer and smaller in city offices than in banks and trust companies. Perhaps, also, the uncertainty of tenure of city office makes its holders more careful to be exceeds that of bank clerks, it clently stringent nor properly enforced. Caine's excuse for the book was Wilson is a fact that embezziements and The "pull" of tenement-house owners, Barrett's reason for the play. always ready to turn over clean accounts they can no doubt secure a reform as ever he has slighted. The heroine, Kate

But however fortunate the municipality may have been in this direction, ple. a little vigilance will do no harm. The city is about doing the act which revealed the Shoe and Leather defalcation-shifting its clerks. A thorough investigation of accounts in every department ought to be made.

It is not likely that anything wrong e discovered. So much the better. We shall then know that for one thing at least we may thank Tammany-it did not pilfer our till.

TURKISH STUPIDITY.

The Turkish authorities have prohibited the entrance of any American newspapers into the Sultan's dominions. The reason is that the journals of the United possible should be blotted from the face of the earth.

This idea of suppressing the truth by shutting out the newspapers is not moopolized by Turkey. There are "Turks" nearer home than Constantinople who to conceal their misdeeds by muzwere a football enthusiast or had any sling the press or stopping the circuiation of fearless journals in which the truth is plainly spoken. The folly of the attempt is, however, every day made apparent. A newspaper against which such efforts are directed is certain to against the press in the hope of conceal- ately after the attack upon a citizen. ing the truth are the best friends of the newspaper they assail, whether in Constantinople or New York.

SOMETHING NEW IN STEALING.

It is common enough nowadays to loot a bank or to stop a passenger on the public streets and relieve him or her, as the case may be, of pocketbook and jewelry. But it is quite a new fac to steal furniture out of a hotel, and the robbers, in such an instance, can scarcely be classified among the "lightfingered" fraternity.

It has been discovered that the New Netherland, one of the recent richly gilded and highly polished additions to New York hostelries, has been robbe in a most liberal and princely manne by some of the employees. One newly married couple, seeing good opportunity to commence house keeping, had transferred from the hotel to their cosy home, seven costly pairs of curtains, handsomely upholstered Chemical Bank rebbery, No. 1; Shoe chairs and lounges, tables, elderdown and Leather Bank robbery, No. 2; Bank pillows, rugs and portieres, besides silof the Republic robbery, No. 3. It ought verware, crockery and canned goods Other employees had been equally thrifty. Eight prisoners are held for the robberies, and yesterday furniture vans and trucks were kept busy between the new homes and the hotel. There was a vaders to the words of the simple "God Bless our Home," hanging on the walls of some of the newly furnished resi-

WHAT IS DENVER'S MORAL STATUS!

That is a remarkable appeal which nearly fifty reputable banks and business houses in Denver have addressed to Gov Waite and Chief of Police Armstrong. It arries the request that gambling halls "may be permitted to be opened standing the magnitude of their victory, there is danger that its good results may be lost in some the opinion of the Chief of Police, will conduct such halls with decency and proconduct such halls with decency and propriety, and under such regulations and ause they are good fellows. Does surveillance as the Police Department may prescribe for their general conduct and maintenance," As an inducement to a place for a gentleman whose claim to the place the granting of the desired permits it is that he is President of the State Republican is declared in the petition that because of the closing of the gambling halls "many buildings and parts of buildings are rendered tenantless, and bring in no rent to owners thereof, and that a large amount of money is kept from coming into the city of Denver and being put into circulation by reason of such wonders for the Better New York, and it closing, and that trade and all kinds of ousiness are affected thereby." Perhaps the Commission now prosecuting its in order to furnish still more of an impaquiries so carnestly. mport a few green-goods operators who are temporarily in the shade in this vifrom the would-be Senator from cinity. They can be warranted to keep

TENEMENT REFORM.

The Tenement-House Committee designed a new garbage dumping of the condition of the tenement-houses even if they are not virtuous enough to doing useful work in its investigation He can also deny that he has of the condition of the tenement-houses even if they are not virtuous enough to protest man de New York's streets, no matter Fire Departments. The Change of the clty, assisted by the Health and behalf of outraged American manhood.—Chicago Fire Departments. The attention of the Post. Committee is especially directed to the rear tenements, which, deprived in a great measure of air and sun, are more threatening to health than front houses and to the custom of using underground basements and cellars as living apartments.

President Wilson, of the Board of epinion on what should be the Sun-bacter law, at present. He does however, that he believes clubs. s and botels should be treated that no basement or cellar ought sitisen knows that the law to be used as a place of human habitation, and that if so used from necessity, the law should require at least all appearances, the men who made the sanitary arrangements and ventilation life of Alexander III. a burden are wait- from the Board of Health to the Build ing Department, was ill-advised, and that authority in these matters ought large banks suggest that it may be well for Father Knickerbocker to take a look the crowded tenement-house question is pected some local coloring, some atmosphere and more compilered in the matter of personal phere a trifle different from that of cleanliness. President Wilson is corcated than that of any bank, and the rect when he says persons cannot be of Hall Caine's color. "The Manxman" made cleanly by law, and he advocates might have been called "The Brooklyn-Whether it is that the safeguards an extensive establishment of public ite," "The Hobokenite," or any other about the handling of municipal money baths as an educational system in this ite you can think of. In conducive to the public health as to the comfort and happiness of the peo-

BETSET WILL NOT RAH! 'RAH! This is the season when everybody worships long hair, burns figurative incense at the shrine of brawn and goes crazy generally over football. But Betsey Johnson isn't one of those who lose their senses over the college game. Betsey is colored, lives in Jersey City, where folks cultivate common sense, and earns her living at the washtub.

She has been permitting a colored gentleman, named George McLain, who is out of work, to share her humble home. and got along all right with him until yesterday, when she found him, on returning from her daily toll, propped up in a rocking-chair, with one leg done States tell the truth about the horrible up in a bandage. He explained that Armenian massacres; properly denounce he had broken the limb while playing Armenian massacres; properly denounce he had broken the limb while playing the barbarous wretches who perpetrated football. Betsy gave him no sympathy. them, and express the opinion that a but turned him out of the house, saying Government under which they can be she didn't mind helping him when he was out of work, but she had no use for a fool that would go out and break his leg in a football game. There is no sporting blood in Betsey's were a football enthusiast or had any

Similar reductions all along the line

Voting is but a means of giving expression to Widely as these two sets of believers may differ on this and other points, there is one upon which great break'ng up of family circles, and ther agree, and that is that the closing of the very little heed was given by the invaders to the words of the simple "God ticable.—Commercial Advertiser.

Col. Strong is their agent, and they (the people) expect him to exercise as much care in filling the municipal offices as he would exercise in selecting the officers of his banking house or his other pusiness establishments. - The Recorder.

The people are looking to Gov.-elect Morton, to the Republican Legislature and to Mayor-ele Strong with hope and high expectation, but with anxiety as well. For they realize that, notwith--The Tribune.

Mr. Morton has chosen to remove an Adjutantleneral of conspicuous efficiency in order to make Furaker claims to possess great admiration for the McKinley Presidential boom; but if the Governor is a wise man he will not leave the point of his jaw exposed.-Washington Post.

A Blessing Vet to Be Proved. M. Dyrkrutsky, a Bohemian tailor in Paris, has invented a plan for making panta that they cannot bag at the knees, and futur generations shall rise up and call him-try

The victorious party is threatened with a plaguof checkbook candidates. It is strange that Republican newspapers do not raise their voices t protest against the menace on party group

There is one nice thing about the American He generally remains in the busi ness until it becomes a physical impossib mount the restrum or go upon the stage.-Clere

What Pitzel Might Have Been. Pitsei, who figures as the central character the Philadelphia insurance swindle, once lived St. Joseph. Had he remained in that city he would have married an helress, gone into the wholesale grocery business and become a re

Among the forces being arrayed against the Russian how happily he and There can be no question that the the East, ought to be included. He is as Indian a shall live "ever after." To transfer of supervision over drainage, fighter from 'way back.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

that authority in these matters ought to be vested in the Health Department. The qualifications required for the superintendence of the erection of a building are wholly different from those necessary to judge intelligently of its sanitary condition and requirements.

Wilson Barrett's different's most popular noted. "The Manxman," produced for the first time in this country at the American Theatre last right, is a disappointment. After trotting us off to the Isle of Man, that lonely spot in the Irish Sea, where the London clerks and small fry spend their the book, Mr. Barrett has simply takes > about to become the mother of Philip Christian's child, Mr. Barrett has presented very crudely. After the marriag she is so miserable that, unable to en-dure Pete's kindness and witness his love for the child that he believes to be terday and wants to sell them to-day at his, she returns to Philip. There she is 119. He is the latest boss of Wall street equally uneasy, and a moment later she and the Treasury Department. goes back to Pete. If Mr. Barrett had been as anxious for the success of this part as he was for that of his own, he might have rendered it at least interest ing. As it was, the Eighth avenue damselines at the American Theatre must have looked upon Kate as a sort of curio, fitted, perhaps, for the "mu-see" that lurks a few blocks below. Kate appeared to be incessantly put ting on her hat, and changing her mind. She leave's Pete's home at a moment's notice, without any packing, or even an extra pair of boots. Heroines generally do this-and then come on in the next act, in a black dress. Kate, however, does not indulge in the black garb. She In no city in the world, I believe, can minutes later we see her ches Philip, ut- in downtown New York. The services offered terly depressed. Philip is growing to run from the extremity of simplicity and fru-hate her, she says—and you can't blame gailty to that of elaboration and extravagance. Philip, even if he is on the Isle of Man. veins apparently. Neither has her philosophy any sentimental leanings. If she Philip, even if he is on the Isle of Man.

> expect the Manxman to arise and say in singing, 'To by-bye, to by-bye, mom

Wilson Barrett was rather hard and un ympathetic as Pete. His is not a ronantic mould, and you can scarcely imagine him doing the heroic. Still, Mr. Barrett tries hard to overcome the phyical obstacles that stand a the way of his successful interpretation of the part W. Percyval as Philip is evidently not an actor of very wide experience, and Miss Maud Jeffries is a sort of uncultirated Julia Arthur, who has power that he does not know how to use. The best work was done by Ambrose Manning a he Bible-quoting father. Miss Daisy Belmore also contributed a valuable lit ALAN DALE.

THE SEVENTY AND THE PIVE.

(Air: "Our Great Mikado, Virtuous Man,") When they to rule our town began, Resolved to try

The Colonel might be boodcoed So they decreed, in words profound, For lawyers who'd run underground

Officials whom they'd tabooed And I expect you'll all agree That they were right to so decree And I am right.

And you are right.

And all is right as right can be. This stern decree, you'll plainly see, Caused great dismay to Tammanee For Bill and Jim And Mike and Tim,

Were equally affected. The Cop who'd blackmailed on the sir, The Captain who had wealth laid by. Commissioners who'd ruled on high

And I am right, And everything is quite correct! But there arose a band of Pive,

And you'll allow, as I expen

Who, with their might and main did strive At Albanes The Seventy To very neatly head off. And now there is the deuce to pay, For both Committee's fight all day, While Fellows sings too-looral-lay! That they have been so led off. And they are wrong. I think you'll say, To quarrel in that kind of And they are wrong.

And he is wrong.

And all is wrong-slack-a-day! N. A. J. EVENING WORLD MOTHER GOOSE.

IV .-- Pantata's Empty Shelf.

When I was a Pantate I looked out for my surviving Tammany braves, Gra. Miles, the But Lawyer Goff came 'round and the did leaf me newly arrived commander of the Department of such a chase. ming World's" Gallery of THE NUT CRACKER AT WORK Various Idens Developed by "Th

This is a picture of the man who or ganized the syndicate that bought the new United States bonds for 117.077 yes-

THE GLEANER'S BUDGET.

Tales of City Life.

Gossip Here, a Hint There and True

David Christic Murray, the well-known Eng-lish novelist, who is now in this country, is a tall, handsome man of striking personal appear-ance. He has clean-cut, intellectual features, not concealed by heard or mustache, and a halo of flowing gray locks, brushed back from a broad forehead. He is famous as a racenteur, and can tell the most thrilling stories of his experiences as a London war correspondent in the Russo Turkish and other campaigns.

rushes away after kissing and me-babying her child, and looking over her have so great a variety of mid-day lunches shoulder at it, and gurgling. A few placed before him, and in so many fashions, as Eighth and Ninth avenues. But it is particularly gratifying that the chief particularly gratifying that the chief thurse in a midgestion of baby and batter in last night's affair should have been apprehended by the police immediately after the attack upon a citizen.

WILSON BILL BARGAIN COUNTER.

She's quite dreadful.

There is an indigestion of baby and batter without a kind word and a gental series and popper should be a power in politics. In a quiet the work mans and is a boson friend of Richard Croker way, and is a boson friend of Richard Croker way, and is a boson friend of Richard Croker way. The plunging turfmen. On the race track he invariably backs winners, but midst of its assony, when Kate has come.

I have several times noticed at the Chatham Square "L" station that the passengers from that is not sufficient to go around an City Hall who want to change for Second avenue just arrive in time to see a train ther want pulling out of the station. Then follows a wait of several minutes, or more, according to the time of day. This invariably happens, and, though I have heard many passengers complain, no change in the order of trains has ever been Register Levy is a man of simple tastes. met him a few days ago munching a sandwich met him a few days ago munching a sandwich in a quick-lunch room. He has one extravagance, and that is in his fondness for clubs, lodges and associations of various kinds. At Saratogs, last Summer, I met him at the race track, and he admitted that it was the first time he had ever seen a horse race. He did not bet, and before the races were concluded, he left, saying he fitting the races were concluded, he left, saying he fitting the races were concluded. the races were concluded, he left, saying he could not see how people were fancinated with the game.

THE GLEANER.

Not So Long as Foreign Laborers late. This I have found from actual experience of the game.

MEN WHO HAVE GOT TO GO.

though, solely on his professional stand-

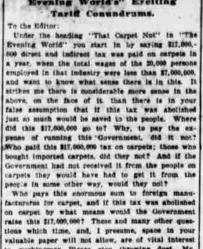

WORLDDINGS.

(Pros the indiampolis Journal.)

It was just around the bend of the road that the stage passed a man swinging by his neck from a rope attached to a cottonwood limb, and it was some minutes before the passenger recovered.

"What was that! Horse thief?" he asked the driver.

"Naw," was the answer. "He was hing fer bein naterly too mean to live. He rid through the city of Yaller Dey day before yistiddy with a bullet-proof plug hat on."

Whew! While Mr. Parkes stops to restatement briefly as follows:

Of that $17,000,000 direct and indirect tax, less than $1,000,000 went to the Gov ernment and was paid by persons porting carpets. The other $16,000,000 was paid by purchasers of American-made carpets, who cheerfully submitted to this indirect tax in the form of extra cost of carpets, under the impression that the money would go to increase the wages of the men who made the carpets. These men actually received a total wage of only a little over $7,000,000, or less than one-half the tax the people handed over to the carpet #### manufacturers. 7,600,000 Farmers in 1880; More Than 10,000,000 Now.

To the Editor: Your binding twine answer is an excellen-Your binding twine answer is an excellent specimen of "The World" nuts. It is easily cracked, and is very wormy. In the first place, there are not 10,000,000 farmers in the United States. In the second place, not half of them use binding twine. In the third place, why should workmen in Brooklyn enrich 10,990,000 ra! Why not the 10,000,000 farmers help the 2,000 Brooklyn workmen? Go to

Cobleskill, N. Y. Nov. 15. Thinks Protection Does Protect-

Manufacturers.

Manufacturers.

Manufacturers.

Manufacturers.

To the Editor:

As a common workman I would like to give to Philip's house and back again. You can't understand her. You can't sympathise with her—and when you are asked body desires to see what it says, and everybody believes what it says, All intelligent subjects of the Sultan will row be anxious to know what the American journals contain, while, but for the prohibition they would not have given the matter a thought.

The "Turks" who make a crusade against the press in the hope of conceal
against the press in the hope of conceal would hesitate a long while about hurting oven a little finger at legitimate to Philip's house and back again. You can't understand her. You can't sympathe to Philip's house and back again. You can't understand her. You can't sympathise with her—and when you are asked to look upon her on Eighth avenue, where all the girls, begad, sir, with no man is better fitted, through his own career mighty fine girls, begad, sir, with no monsense about them, begad, sir, with no monsense about them to Philip's house and back again. You to Philip's house and back again. You to Philip's house and back again.

To the Editor:

To the Editor:

To the Editor:

To the presidant Low, of Columbia Colthise with the university convocation in Chicago Manufacturers.

> wish it would take cold and the bottle and a white nightle, and in the midst of its agony, when Kate has come hack to him in her hat and her sage from this source does not amount to much. I do house, to make merry for strangers? Hundreds not think Kelly has an enemy 'n the world. men are at this moment actually in need of bread. Why invite foreigners here to a repast

Wages Have Not Gone Down and There Is Lots More Work.

Why don't you give the readers of your pane the inside and outside of those nuts you want McKiuley to crack. If you did so the readers could crack them without McKinley. For it

Elizabeth, Nov. 14, Come in Free.

I have seen it stated over and over again in the columns of "The Evening World" that pro-tection is not a factor in regulating wages, but He told me mine was a bad case, but he would that they are regulated by the laws of supply protectionists claim that protection creates a demand for labor, are we not justified in claiming that it also raises wages. ALEX M'KEON, 66 East 105th st.

EVENING WORLD" GUIDE-BOOK. New York .-- V .-- Castle

day who remember the days when Castle Garden was the home of grand opera. Yet it was only half a century ago that the structure was given up to arias and airy staps. Before that, the old Castle had been a post of National defense until the Government decided that it was no longer necessary to hold the fort on that particular spot. While it was a fort, by the way, the old structure rejoiced in the name of Castle Clinton, and its site was 100 yards from the maintand of Manhat-tan. Jenny Lind sang in the Castle in 1850. A local merchant paid $225 for first choice of sea on the occasion of the Swedish Nightingale's first appearance. A few years later, some unwilling ereigners paid more than that, at the Castle o just out of it, without having their choice of anyching. But then, a different sort of bird was in business at the Garden. He was the "boardinghouse" hawk. The nightingule had been content against their will, whereas "Old Style" and to carry away her hearers on the wings of song.

The tories. What work they wants to keep us from that.
We have as much right here as any other race of pagpie. Our ancestors were brought here against their will, whereas "Old Style" and to carry away her hearers on the wings of song. The hawk carried away whatever the immigrants had that was portable. While Castle Garden was cally referred to as a front door of the nation

Ornheus with his lute made trees, And the mountain-tops that freeze; they themselves when he did sing; To his music plants and flowers Ever sprung, as our and showers . There had made a lasting fipring.

Everything that heard him play,

Under a Bent Ha'penny.

lored coat with fur to match is intensely pleasing in autumn, and comes appropriately again at the approach

Thanksgiving Dinner.

Creamed turkey soup. Boiled turkey with rice stuffing and oyster sauce. Riced potatoes. Scalloped tomatoes. Bolled nions and cranberries. Celery, pickles and salted almonds. A bouquet salad can follow, made of hard-bolled eggs, lettuce, only the tender white leaves! few nasturtium blossoms and mayonnaise dressing. For dessert a Dutch Holmes in his study, sitting alone by apple pudding, lemon pie, nuts. raisins, the fire, looking not very happy. To

Thanksgiving Suct Pudding.

Every housewife is supposed to have er family receipt for plum pudding, doubtless handed down for generations, but it may be well to add a suggestion for suet pudding. Use one cupful of moiasses, one cupful of finely chopped suet, one cupful of milk, one of chopped raisins, one teaspoonful of baking powder, a little salt, three cupfuls of flour. Steam two hours. For a delicious plain sauce, use one cupful of butter, three of powdered sugar, stirred to a cream. Beat in the juice of one lemon and two oranges, and add two teaspoonfuls of the turkey until tender, chop them very cinnamon. Whip hard until very light fine and add to the dressing, if desired, and creamy, form in attractive shape

The Cranberries.

Cranberries may be served either in jelly or sauce. For jelly, stew the berries and strain, adding one pound of sugar to every pint of juice; boil and skim, test by dropping into a little cold water; when it does not mingle it is done. Cranberry sauce so often falls done. Cranberry sauce so often falls in gwould not be Thanksgiving spumpkin pie. One of the best methods of short of its possibilities through hurried cooking or other faults of preparahalf. Do not sweeten until they are This lady wears what is known as the taken from the fire; then add sugar bent halfpenny" hat. It is sweetly be- plentifully and pour into a mould wel coming to damsels, inviting, tantalising with cold water. If desired, the pulp and partially shrouding! The beaver-the may be strained before pouring into the mould. If you do not wish to "form," use more water in cooking, but otherwise follow the same directions,

To Serve with Turkey.

After boiling half a dozen onions in After boiling nate for one hour, pour three quarts of water for one hour, pour the liquor and cut the onions into off the liquor and cut the onions small pieces. Season with sait and pepper, and pour a pint of cream sauce over them. Serve very hot. To make the sauce, first put a pint of milk into a saucepan to boil. Rub to a cream two tablespoonfuls of butter and one generous spoonful of flour, and when the milk begins to boil stir this cream into it. Continue the stirring until the sauce is smooth. Season with salt and pep-per and boll up at once. A Story of Mrs. Ormiston Chant.

Mrs. Ormiston Chant tells a joke about herself. When before the London Music Hall Licensing Committee she overheard a man asking another, pointing to two of the witnesses: "Which of these old cats is Mrs. Chant?" Mrs. Chant leaned over and said: "That par-icular tabby, sir, is behind you. "Two Feet on the Fender."

Dr. Holmes, several years ago, asked a friend: "What is your idea of happiness?" And the prompt answer: "Four feet on the fender," gave him great satisfaction. Some time later, perhaps a year or more, this friend found Dr. Holmes in his study, sitting alone by the visitor's solicitous greeting came the reply: "Only two feet on the fender,

Thanksgiving Potatoes

Mashed potatoes are invariably on a Phanksgiving menu, and sweet potaoes ought to be. In preparing the latter for baking, if the skin is rubbed off with a cloth, instead of being scraped off with a knife, they will not turn dark colored. Some housewives steam them for half an hour before putting them into the oven.

The Bird's Innards.

Boil the heart, liver and gizzard of or to the gravy after it is prepared. and creamy, form in attractive and set in a cold place till sent to the may be kept to add to the brown gravy from the roast, or it may be allowed to cool and poured over the bread crumbs for the dressing, which have been pre-kin pie. One of the best methods of preparing there is to use one quart of

LETTERS.

tion to give, a subject of general interest to discuss or a public service to acknowledge, and who can put the ides into less than 100 words. Long latters summet be printed.) pottage into his abnormal cavity at a two-forty or smoking, especially rigarettes (although I am moderate in both), affects the nerves of the When I was quite young (fifteen or sixteen) it was agony for me to express myself. I would distort my face, stick my tongue out, &c. He told me mine was a bad case, but he guarantee a cure in six weeks for $200, having $200, and from the way he spot thought struck me to try elecution, which I did, and with good results. Reading aloud, deep breathing and confidence are good, and when you talk, breathe from the abdomen, and not from lar hours and tend to your teeth. I have h of a man who cured himself in this way: Holding his hands to the seams of his tremers, and keep-ing time with his fingers each word he spoke. TOMMIE ATKINS.

Hope for Stammerers.

To the Editor:

Salaries Could Be Better Expended. To the Editor: What in the name of common-s necessity for a Board of Examining Physicians to the Street-Cleaning Department? It is but an-other unnecessary drain on the taxpayers of the city. If a man is physically incapable, it is not likely he will apply for work in the Depart-ment, but even should he do so and succeed in being appointed it would take but a very short time for his employers to discover his inability to perform the duties assigned him. Let this useless Board be abolished. Place extra men useless Board be abotted. Place ex-upon the atreets for the salaries saved. Give Colored Folks a Chancel

To the Editor:
In reply to "Old Style," who I am age to prejudiced and narrow-minded, I will sak what are the colored people to do to be self-austaining? They are dealed work in stores and fac-

A Chance to Get Work.

There are more than twenty counties in Ohio some people insisted that it was intimately considered with its county town in the centre of the number and ton-nected with the back door of Europe. There was to the "New York Branch of the Association of truth in this, occasionally, but more often there was politics. When Ellis latand became the impage of steam and nalling vessels launched in warm state. New York Real tell with Centre of the Ellis without means and unable to join majorant station. New York was left with Castindarden on its hands. Instead of allowing the place to become an elephant, the city determined to turn it into an aquarium, and the process is now on. Immigrants used to go through the Casmonths, and I at lest secured a position through

I want to have my fling at the boarding-house and. He occupies the best seat at table, tries to monopolize the waitreer's time, wants everything "just so," or sets up a howl. He drinks his soup and codes through his teeth, with a hissing sound that would put a steam engine to shame; eals an orange with eams smacking accommaniment, sud the noise he makes with his lips when he bears down upon a dish particularly to his liking must be akin to Brockway's paddling whacks at Eimira Reformatory. These are a few of the disquaing traits of hog No. 1. Swins No. 2 we have also with us. He chops his meat late mines consistency, supplies on fied cooking or other radius of prepared pumpkin, one quart of good for a quart of the cranberries add a rich milk, one cup of sugar, six well-half pint of water, and allow them to cook slowly for at least an hour and a cinnamen to suit the faste. this a side dish of pens; to this he adds a spoonful of every other vegetable in sight, topping off with two large potatoes. Then he mixes this mess as a mason's assistant would mortar, tucks up his sleeves, seless his good, trusty fork in his strong right arm and does duty for the edification of his fellow-guests by shovelling his schooling his shootmal cavity at a two-forty of every other vegetable in eight, topping gait, never once halting until he has emptied his plate, when, more than likely, he calls for and round. In the name of common decency, second round. In the name of common what should be done with such people? FELLOW-BOARDER

The Little Rhyme Came Back. o the Editor: I wrote a little rhyme Which seemed pretty at the time, Then with a heart elate,

And hopeful for its fate to a monthly magazine I mailed it That evening I dreamed got a check, and deemed Myself a new recruit to poet't ranks; But, size! upon the morrow,

To my regret and sorrow, be little rhyme returned, declined with thanks. JOHN J. M'INTYRE.

To Get Even with the "L" To the Editor: This is about the "L" roads and their manage This is about the 'L' route and the Manhattan ment. It is a known fact that the Manhattan Company's motto is and has been "The People Be Hanged" (probably they mean from the strapa). The cars are poorly lighted and crowded without cased to comfort and strapa). The cars are poorly lighted and crowded to suffocation, without regard to comfort and health. I would suggest to every rider on said cars to raise the cry for better light and accommodations, and, fo emphasize it, to buy their tickets one by one and pay for same in pennies. What would be the result of such an action? At least would be the result of such an action? At least magnates of the "L" a week of such work and least illustes and more cars will be coming. Raise better lights and more cars will be coming. Raise the cry, then, "Pay for your tickets with peenlee!" M. F. PENA, 90 Chambers street. The Seventy and Fige of Long Ago.

I always heard that the Old and the New Testaments must be alike. Can any one of my friends tell me why, in the Old Testament, as I have read, that Jacob went with seventy people to Egpyt, and with seventy-five people to Egypt? Both nur cannot be true.
PAULINE GOLDFARE, 52 Sheriff street, city.

Letter-Box Literature. To the Editor:

I wish to make a complaint about the way the natter when I pass my letter-box it is always full of this stoff. Is there no law compelling these advertisers to stop this autannet These placards are generally delivered and are not sent

Looking Ahead.

To the Editor: I would suggest to "L. A.," who asks what he can give his young lady for a Christman precent, that he buy her a good solid gold ring, for when they are married should he at any time become financially embarramed why he could make use of the ring himself.
P. P. H., Brooklyn, N. T.

BY NEW YORK EDITORS.

EDITORIAL MEDLEY. McKinley Forewarned.

pee or twice.-Philadelphia Ledger The Spread of Briceism.

Never Driven Out of Business.

spected and honorable member of society.--Kanas

DR. WILLIAM T. JENKINS. Dr. William T. Jenkins, Health Officer of the Port of New York, is a Mississipplan, who began his public career by marrying the youngest sister of Richard Croker in 1880. After that he served four terms as Deputy Coroner. In January, 1892, in view of the doctor's marital propinquity to the Boss of New York, Gov. Flower made him Health Officer he is a very pleasant gentleman, and has many friends. He would

The Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the United States has 57,350 members, according to he latest statistics. There are more than twenty counties in Ohio nage of steam and sailing vessels launched in Great Britain. William Pole, the authority on whist, who was born in 1814, is at once an expert civil engineer. Garden it will be a sure case of "all swim." But a skilffit organist, and at authority on all there will be still as good fish in the sea as ever a period of seven months, and I at last secured a position through the same will be a sure case of "all swim." But cannot fill good positions for want of proper applicants.

Influence the sea as ever the sea as ever are caught for Castle Garden Aquarium.

The Boarding-How The Boarding T The idea of baving a coon as a campaign